ELLINWOOD.
From The Leader.

Miss Lena Schlottemeyer, who has been visiting in Kansas City, Mo., has returned home.

John Trump of Kansas City was here this week the guest of his mother and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eaton of Great Bend were the guests of Ellinwood friends the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Schantz and three children left yesterday morning for a short visit with Hutchinson friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pentz and little daughter, Ruth, of Hutchinson, are here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Strothman.

Mrs. Anna Jocum and children, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, J. Daniel and wife, departed Tuesday night for their home in Offerle.

Those who noticed Dave Thornberry strutting down the street Monday afternoon, wondered why he was holding his head so high. But it was not long before the secret leaked out. Dave began telling about his Christmas present which happened to be a 7 1/2 pound boy that arrived at their home. Mother and baby are both doing well, but the boys made Dave's pocketbook look mighty sick.

Arthur Thomas and wife received a Christmas gift three days before Christmas but which was made well come just the same—a little girl baby. Mother and baby are doing well. Congratulations.

Gus Koch, jr., returned the last of the week from Garden City, where he had been at the poultry show. He carried away all the prizes in Leghorns and Hamburgs. Thus the Pleasant Hill Poultry farm added more blue ribbons to their already long string.

Otto Soeken and wife returned Tuesday morning from an extended visit with relatives in Talmage, Nebr. Otto says they had six inches of snow up there when they left and on the way home from Kansas City they had a heavy rain, much more than we had out here in Barton county.

Mrs. C. A. Hooper and son, Jacob, visited with friends in Hutchinson Saturday.

Clarence Holmes returned last Thursday from a visit with his parents at Douglass.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Luse entertained about thirty-five guests at a whist party Friday evening.

T. A. Cassidy, of Jonesville, Wis., has accepted the position as car clerk for the Santa Fe.

Howard Mell is visiting his brother, Arthur, at Tuttle, Okla.

Grant Lippincott, of the Pawnee Rock Herald, was here Tuesday on his way to Albert.

Miss Emma Gunther went to Wichita Saturday for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Jones.

CLAPLIN.
From The Clarion.

Wm. Stout was married last Thursday to Miss Harriett Jewell of Arcadia.

Born, to J. W. Schultz and wife a 12 pound baby boy, Tuesday the 27th.

J. A. and T. A. Watson and their families spent Christmas in Salina with relatives.

Alois Prosser of near Odin is digging a cellar and making preparations for building a new house on his farm.

Herman Penner and family of Ellsworth came down Saturday for a short visit with the Penner and Havy families.

Martin Starr and wife went to Scott City last Thursday night in response to a message announcing the death of his grandmother who was 87 years old. She was buried Saturday afternoon in the Scott City cemetery.

Mrs. O. C. Lang of Sylvia and Mrs. Clara Smith of Enterprise have been spending the past week or more visiting with their mother, Mrs. Hofmeister at Bushton and their sister, Mrs. E. R. Ruch.

Mrs. Josie Dotter and children of Oklahoma came in very unexpected last week for a visit, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roesler. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson of Holsington were also guests at the Roesler home.

Frank Peschka was in town last Saturday, bringing Father Cerely of Hays City with him, who conducted the services at the Catholic church Sunday. Mr. Peschka's children are attending school at Hays City.

What might be termed a double celebration was held at the home of Frank Grizzell Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Grizzell and all of the children had gathered there for the purpose of celebrating Christmas and also to celebrate the wedding of Miss Carrie to Mr. Arthur Murphy of near Chase. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilson of the M. E. church in the presence of only the relatives and a very few invited guests.
